

Invitation Letter to TCBM Launch for SCRM members

Dear SCRM members

We are pleased to invite you to the official “Translational and Clinical Bio-Manufacturing (TCBM) Platform Launch” at the occasion of the International IPLASS Stem Cell Conference on September 7, 2018 at the Auditorium Ettore Rossi, Inselspital, University Hospital Bern.

TCBM will be officially launched in Session VII under “Swiss TCBM Platform for Translational and Clinical Bio-Manufacturing”. We have been able to secure two outstanding external speakers and two speakers from the TCBM Platform (tentative program attached). At the end of the session the steering committee members and delegates will be presented in person.

We are able to offer a special day package fee for SCRM/TCBM members: CHF 100 per person per day and CHF 200 for 2 days. The official dinner September 6, 2018 will cost CHF 100 per person.

Attendance is free of charge for presenters, SCRM Steering Committee (SC) and SCRM Strategic Board (SB) members.

Please find attached the subscription form, fill in one sheet per research group (including members free of charge) and send it back to IPLASS at the attention of Mrs. christa.twellmann@insel.ch with copy to rene.aeberhard@dbmr.unibe.ch no later than June 30, 2018.

Please note that your participation will be confirmed once the payment has been obtained. All payment details are mentioned on the subscription form attached.

Abstracts can be posted via www.iplass2018.org/abstracts until June 15, 2018. For further information on the 5th International Stem Cell Conference please visit www.iplass2018.org. However, do NOT register via this site due to this special package deal.

We are looking forward to welcome as many as possible at the official TCBM Platform Launch on Friday, Sep 7, 2018.

On behalf of the SCRM Steering Committee and SCRM Strategic Board
Prof Eliane J Müller
